

Lot #1. Argentina Dove Hunt

A 3-night, 3-day trip for two shooters to Pica Zuro Lodge or La Dormida Lodge to experience world-class dove hunting in Cordoba, Argentina. As the “dove shooting capital of the world,” the Cordoba Province in Argentina provides a year-round population of doves that must be seen to be believed. David Denise Wingshooting operates the two finest lodges in the region, Pica Zuro and La Dormida. Guests enjoy exceptional shooting terrain, expertly trained guides, fantastic culinary experiences complemented with fine Argentine wines, comfortable accommodations, state-of-the-art equipment and even an on-site masseuse! There are many shooting opportunities in Argentina, but these lodges provide a level of service and a commitment to quality that is unmatched in South America.

Includes: meet and greet service at the Cordoba Airport, 3-nights double occupancy accommodations, all meals and beverages at the lodge, guided dove hunting for 3 days (2 full days and 2 half days).

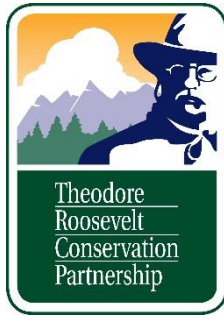

Restrictions: Airline transportation, ground transfers, shells, gun rental, licenses and permits, gratuities, and spa treatments not included. Trip must be taken by 4/15/16 and is subject to availability. Once the recipient selects a date and confirms reservation, the normal cancellation and responsibility clauses will be in effect.

Lot #2. An Alaskan Adventure: Crystal Creek Lodge - June 15-18, 2015

3 day/3 night Fishing and Adventure Package at Crystal Creek Lodge in Alaska. Your home while in Alaska will be Crystal Creek Lodge, a beautiful 7,500 sq. ft. building made of massive scribed logs and river rock. The lodging facility is impeccably built, completely modern, warm, quaint and tastefully decorated. The Lodge is located on a bluff overlooking the Naknek River on the Alaska Peninsula in the Bristol Bay area. This area is world famous for extraordinary river and stream fishing, wildlife viewing, photography, hiking, and scenery.

Your trip will include three full days of guided activities of your choice (river/stream fishing, river rafting trip, brown bear and wildlife viewing, or beach combing and bird watching). The rivers and streams of the surrounding Bristol Bay area are world famous for the size and quantities of Rainbow Trout, Arctic Char, Dolly Varden and Grayling found in them, and the nearby Katmai National Park has one of the highest concentrations of Brown Bears in the world. Plus, the shores of Bristol Bay are also loaded with numerous species of migratory shore birds, song birds and waterfowl which nest and feed in the coastal zone and can be observed and identified.

Included: Ground transportation from King Salmon to and from Crystal Creek Lodge, air transportation from the lodge on daily fly outs, three meals each day. A double occupancy room within the main lodge. Daily housekeeping and mid-week laundry service. Fishing gear to include rod/reel combinations, lures, flies, and terminal tackle. Use of chest waders (limited sizes available) or hip boots. Three days of guided activities.

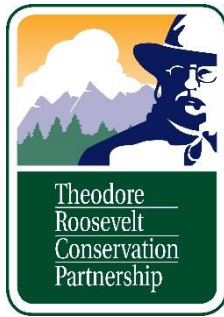

*Not Included: Airfare between your home and King Salmon, bar and store selections, fishing licenses, and staff gratuities (which are at your discretion). Valid June 15-18, 2015 only.

Lot #18. Sitka 90% Jacket

This is the idea that launched Sitka: a lightly insulated, highly breathable soft shell built to keep you charging in 90% of mountain conditions. It's the foundation of 'Turning Clothing Into Gear'.

The fourth generation 90% Jacket is three times more wind resistant than its predecessor, evening out heat retention between whisper-still mornings and howling afternoons. A body-mapped, microgrid fleece backer puts insulation only where you need it, and the channels formed by the microgrid convectively draw warm, moist air away from the body and out of the jacket – keeping you cool on redline pushes to the next ridgetop. The seams are thermal taped for smoothness and comfort in a variety of under layer configurations. Dual hand pockets and chest pockets help keep you organized.

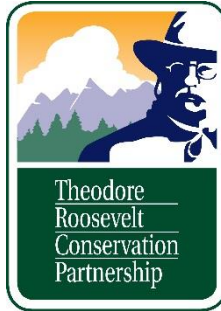

The 90% Jacket is pliable, durable and quiet – a precisely engineered tool that, with proper layering, can take you through 90% of your season.

Winner may order the jacket size of your choice.
